In the matter of

Implementation of Section 25 of the Cable Television Consumer
Protection and Competition Act of 1992

Direct Broadcast Satellite
Public Service Obligations

FCC MAIL BRANCH

MM Docket 93-25

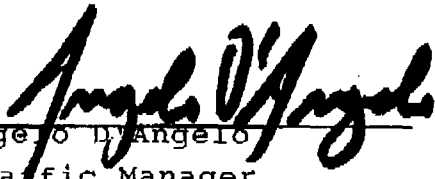

TO: The Commission

We would point out that the above referenced matter is an amendment to the Cable laws already existing, which provide for public access. Further, the creative but unbelievable grammatical construction by which APTS claims Congress gave them an exclusive right to noncommercial DBS broadcasts is patently illegal and even unconstitutional. Equally so is the HITN claim that no public broadcasters are to be included in the noncommercial category.

However, Congress in its wisdom recognizing that existing law already provided for public access, and aware that satellite technology since 1958 has not been used for
